

Modification of Formula Manual Review Process

The State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) has discontinued the activity of the Formula Subcommittee scheduled during and immediately following the public comment period on the proposed changes to the Michigan Child Support Formula Manual. During this time, SCAO will review and adjust its procedures to ensure timely completion of the federally mandated guideline review and to include broader public input. Changes will be announced on this web page.